

Indiana Individual, Corporate and Labor Organization Contribution Limits

Important notes:

- Individual contributions have NO limits
- LLC's, LLP's and Partnerships have NO contribution limits
- IBRG can accept up to an $8,000 contribution from any single corporation

Corporations and labor organizations are limited to an aggregate of political contributions in any calendar year in the sum of $22,000 apportioned in any manner among the following categories (highlights indicate categories that apply to IBRG):

- $5,000 apportioned in any manner among all candidates for statewide candidates;
- $5,000 apportioned in any manner among all state central committees of political parties;
- $2,000 apportioned in any manner among all candidates for senate of the general assembly;
- $2,000 apportioned in any manner among all candidates for house of representatives of the general assembly;
- $2,000 apportioned in any manner among all state senate legislative caucus committees;
- $2,000 apportioned in any manner among all state house of representative caucus committees;
- $2,000 apportioned in any manner among all candidates for district, county, local and school board offices; and
- $2,000 apportioned in any manner among all political party committees other than state committees.